

We are transitioning from GoDaddy website hosting and e-mail to EverWeb.

The website and e-mails have already been transferred. Working out an issue with Amanda's computer e-mail program Outlook. Have temporarily set her e-mails up using the Mozilla (makers of the FireFox Browser) Thunderbird e-mail app.

We will still have:

- 1.) GoDaddy for the registered www.zionmillstadt.com domain ($43.98 every 2 years)
- 2.) Google for the YouTube Livestream hosting ($12 every month)
- 3.) EverWeb website building app ($89.95 a year) increased to include website and email hosting ($199.95 a year).

We eliminate GoDaddy website hosting and e-mails, which translates into a $897.53 savings per year.
