

As of November 5th, 46 families (88 people) have been photographed. Clearly many more of our members could be photographed or could submit a photo. We will proceed no matter how many more respond.

The Cemetery Walk, organized by Charlotte Mehrtens on October 4th, was attended by about 100 people.

Our Operation Christmas Child Shoebox Mission is proceeding well. As of November 5th we have received 86 boxes. Sisters-in-Faith we be packing additional boxes with donated items on November 6th. And, I will drop off the shoeboxes to St. Matthews Church in Belleville on November 19th. We should exceed our goal of 100 shoeboxes.

Thanks to Dale Gruenewald, Danny Doerr and Armin Mehrtens for the Polka Service on Sunday, October 19th.

Thanks to the many who helped with our All Hallow's Eve Party for our Millstadt Community on October 31st. We had over 200 children and youth, as well as many adults come through our Church. Some stayed for a half hour or more playing games and making crafts. All received a bag of candy with a variety of faith flyers, handouts, craft and activity sheets, and place mats. A special thanks to: Ginger Bourn, Connie DeRousse, Darrell & Debbie Doerr, Jessi Doerr, Carol Harres, Linda Hopfinger, Annette Hund, Jeannine Kochmann, Susie Leinicke, Charlotte Mehrtens, Kay Mehrtns, Mary Lou Peter, and Marjie & Darrell Weber, and many others who donated cookies and candy.
